

Event Monitors Policy

Effective: 12/14/2016

Last Updated: 07/05/2018

PREAMBLE

Several events run by student leaders take place over the course of the academic year that require event monitors.

POLICY

Event monitors are required at all student events, whether alcohol is being served or not. The ratio between monitors and students shall be no less than 1:20. So, for an event of 100 people, there must be at least 5 event monitors. The Department of Housing may request an amendment to this ratio as deemed appropriate for the event in question.

An event monitor must:

- a) Be a student leader affiliated with Housing at the time of the event (e.g. Residence or Faculty Soph, Staff Member, member of Residents' Council, etc.)
- b) Be sober for the entire duration of the event. This means that event monitors arrive sober, and leave sober. In the spirit of this policy, sober means having consumed no alcohol or other intoxicating substance whatsoever before, during, or after the event;
- c) Meet 30 minutes prior to the start of the event with the event organizer, the Residence Manager (RM)/Manager-on-Call (MOC), duty staff, security team, and venue management to discuss protocols and expectations for the event*;
- d) Report any and all foreseeable issues to present duty staff;
- e) Accompany an intoxicated student back to the front desk of their Residence building. It is strongly recommended that two monitors accompany a student back to Residence. A duty staff in the building will be called to check in on the student;
- f) Be clearly identifiable at the event;
- g) Interact in a respectful manner with venue and security staff;
- h) Ensure only approved participants use transportation, if applicable.

It is further required that 2-3 event monitors be Smart Serve trained. The Department offers and organizes Smart Serve training in the fall.

Security is to be provided by a company recommended by the Residence Life Management Team. The ratio of security guards to students shall be no less than 2 for the first 100 participants and 1 for each 100 participants after that. Note, however, that some venues have their own security policies. The number of security guards hired shall be in compliance with both the Department's policy as well as that of the venue. In the case that the venue policy exceeds that of the Department's in terms of the number of required guards, the venue's security policy must be observed.

In the event of a dispute between student leaders and security or site management, the MOC should be called.

PROCEDURE

For more information regarding event planning and procedures, see the Online Event Proposal Form on the Council Portal, rezcouncil.uwo.ca.

For more information regarding serving alcohol at student events, refer to the Alcohol Policy.

* Certain venues, like The Wave, have unique and specific expectations of event monitors. It is strongly recommended that you speak with venue management about expectations before recruiting for event monitors. Even with this understanding, you must adhere to point c.

All questions regarding the Event Monitors Policy can be forwarded to the Programming Coordinator(s) in the Office of Residence Education and Programs.
